

Templars Primary School Newsletter

Dear Parents and Carers,

I know that many of you have noticed that we have had no school crossing patrol this week. Unfortunately this will also be the case next week so please continue to take extra care when crossing Templars Avenue. From 15th November things should return to normal.

It has certainly made us all aware how much we rely on the lollipop lady to see us safely across the road. While I was speaking to the Travel Safety Officer at the City Council about the situation she mentioned that the School Crossing Patrol has been having an ongoing issue with parents in cars queueing across the piece of road where the Patrol works. Please try to leave a gap so that she can ferry the children across easily.

Next Week is Anti-Bullying Week

To mark the beginning of Anti-Bullying Week On Monday 15th November All you need to do is wear odd socks! It's a great way to celebrate what makes us all unique in Anti-Bullying Week!

Children in Need

Friday 19th November, all children are still required to wear their school uniform but they can accessorise it with something spotty, ie spotty tights or socks, a Pudsey hairband, a spotty hairband. We are asking for donations and there will be buckets on the gates in the morning of Friday 19th November.

We worked as a class community to create our own poppy wreath.

A simple but effective way to reinforce how much more we can accomplish as a group rather than individually.

Lest We Forget

They were worn with songs to the battle. They were grown through the fields, and up the roads, and they were made with the hands of the women they put with their hearts in the soil.

They shall grow on all the green hills
and shall be green to the very end, for the poppy grows in the soil of the fallen.

They shall grow on all the green hills
and shall be green to the very end,
for the poppy grows in the soil of the
fallen.

My year 4 mentees have been learning first aid skills this week. Today we learnt how to apply a plaster, so I now look like I've had lots of injuries 😂 #pupilpremium @TemplarsPrimary @Miss_KStuart
